

Heber, Utah, 1935
June 1st, 1935.

Mayor Louis Marcus,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dear Sir:

We, the undersigned municipal corporations and civic clubs of Wasatch County, do hereby extend to you and your associates our appreciation for the appointment of Mayor H. Clay Cummings, of Heber City, as a member of the Board of Directors of the Deer Creek Water Users Association. We heartily endorse this appointment.

This letter is written as the result of a joint meeting called for the purpose of discussing the Deer Creek Project. Those present at the meeting were unanimous in their expression to the effect that full co-operation and support would be given for the pushing forward of the project by all organizations there represented.

If you desire to call on any of the undersigned at any time for any assistance, feel free to do so.

Respectfully yours,
